

Invitation to the Awarding Ceremony of the René Kuczynski Prize 2014 for outstanding publications in the field of international social and economic history

to

Matthias Judt

for his book:

Der Bereich Kommerzielle Koordinierung: Das DDR-Wirtschaftsimperium des Alexander Schalck-Golodkowski – Mythos und Realität, Berlin: Ch. Links Verlag 2013

Date: Thursday, 25 September 2014, 8:15 pm

Venue: AK-Bildungshaus Jägermayrhof, Römerstraße 98, 4020 Linz
(within the opening of the 50th Linz Conference of the ITH)

Programme

Welcome address

Univ. Doz. Dr. Berthold Unfried (Vienna)

Laudation

Prof. Dr. Jörg Roesler (Berlin)

Address of the Prize Winner

Dr. Matthias Judt (Potsdam)

Discussion

Matthias Judt, economic historian, research associate at the Centre for Contemporary History Potsdam (ZFF). 1989 doctoral graduation from the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin; 1989/90 scientific assistant at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin; 1990/91 research assistant at the Institute of Economic History, Berlin; 1992 research assistant at the University of Hannover; 1992-95 scientific assistant at the German Historical Institute in the USA; 1997-2001 scientific assistant at the Martin Luther University of Halle-Wittenberg; 2002-2004 scientific assistant at the Sachenhause Memorial; since 2005 at the ZZf. Research fields: Economic history of the GDR and FRG, consumer history of the USA.

The prize, donated by the Berlin family of scholars Kuczynski, is named after the German economist Robert René Kuczynski (1876-1947), whose demographic studies became particularly famous in the Anglo-American region.

Further information: http://www.ith.or.at/ith_e/kuczynski_index_e.htm